We of the 1960 Dial staff are pleased and proud to dedicate this yearbook to the much deserving Miss Frances Merritt.

A graduate of Washington Gardner High School in Albion, she obtained her bachelor of arts degree from Albion College. She later attended the University of Michigan where she received her master of arts degree in 1950.

In her sixteen years of service to our school, she has become one of Marshall's favorite teachers. Over 2,000 students have enjoyed her English classes because her knowledge is taught so expertly and her smiling face and witty comments are ever present. A true friend, she would help anyone at any time and her advice is often sought.

Miss Merritt is the active sponsor of the Usher Club and of the National Honor Society. She has sponsored many classes in the past and this year we of the senior class were fortunate to have her as one of our sponsors.

This small dedication can never express the gratitude, respect, and admiration we all feel for this humble and great person. With our deepest appreciation, Miss Merritt — we thank you.

Vicki,
Remember all the nights down at the store & all the fun we've had together. Also all the times we were going to elope, but something came up & we never did.
I wish you luck all the Because you deserve in world, though you surely I hope it, Even always you won't with me. we can Be FRIENDS,
Love
Charlie
P.S.
Good Luck with all the boys. I hope we can mess around some this summer out at the country club, like throwing you in OUT AT THE KAFT
Love - again

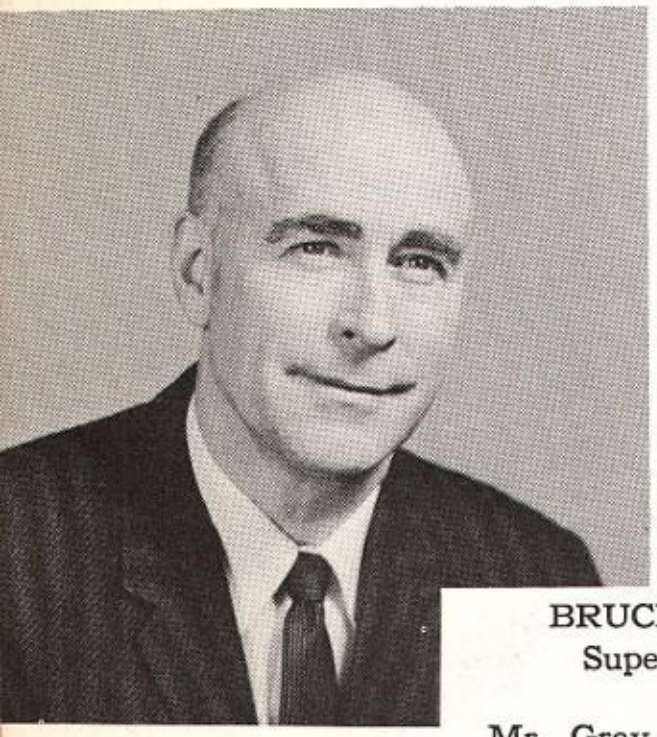
Administration Works for Better Schools

Members of the Board of Education are: Mrs. John S. Twist, treasurer; Mrs. B. E. Henry, trustee; Mr. Alfred P. Stuart, president; Mrs. George W. Kibbie, trustee; Mr. E. B. Lincoln, secretary.

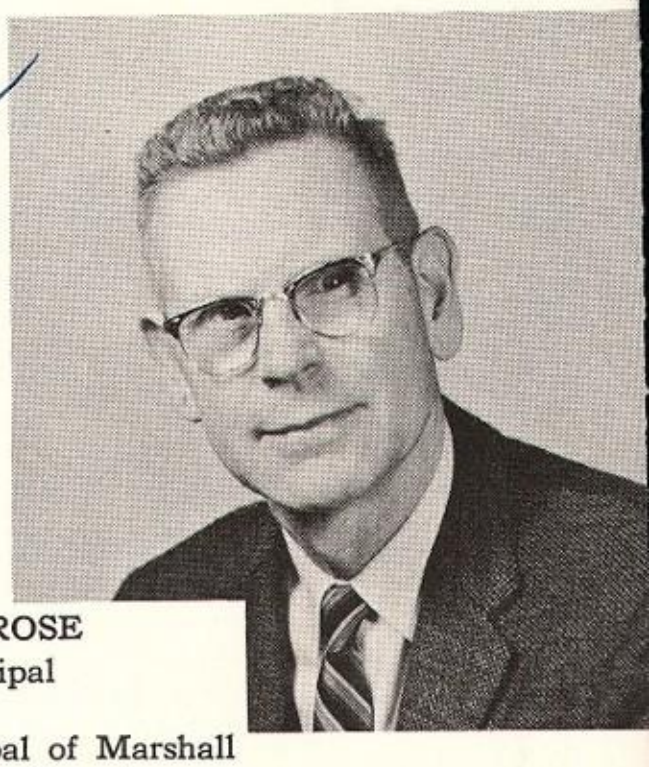
BOARD OF EDUCATION

The five members of the Board of Education are chosen by the people of Marshall to establish the policies concerning the best possible education for the local students. The members must be responsible and respected citizens of the community and have knowledge as to what is best for our school. The term of office is a period of three years and the members may be elected again. These capable people have been most successful in maintaining the high standing our school has attained.



BRUCE A. GRAY
Superintendent

Mr. Gray has held several positions, varying from coach to his present position as superintendent of the Marshall Public Schools. Never slighting his duties, he has been busy keeping ahead of what was expected of him, and he did a great deal to help secure our new-buildings program.



E. G. ROSE
Principal

As the principal of Marshall High School, Mr. Rose is constantly busy using his better judgement at conferences, meetings, and on the telephone. Our well-liked principal keeps in constant touch with all of the various organizations and the student body as well.

Marshall High School . . .

We, your 1960 graduates, in leaving, would like to pay tribute to you. We realize that the most formative part of our years was spent here and we will always recall many fond memories.

To open our freshman year in 1956, we elected Tom Aills as class president and Anita Martens as vice-president. Mr. Spooner and Mrs. Glines were chosen as class sponsors. The girls joined many clubs and the boys began participating in sports. Our homecoming float carried the theme "Let's Ball 'Em Up" and took third place, while Pam Aylward served on the queen's court.

Myron Wasielewski, president; Sandy Chapin, vice-president; and Jackie Snyder, secretary-treasurer, were our sophomore class officers, with Mr. Mack and Miss Evans as our sponsors. Larry Fitch was elected secretary-treasurer of the student council. Sandy Chapin was chosen for the queen's court for homecoming, while Janet Hoenes served on the track queen's court. Our big projects this year were the Puff Ball; the car wash; and the float, a large stork carrying twins with the theme "We're Expectin' T'win."

In our junior year, Penny McMahan was elected president; Jerry Elyea, vice-president; and Pam Aylward, secretary-treasurer. Our sponsors were Mrs. Fitzgerald, Miss Shafer, and Mr. Hodnett. The highlights of this year included our first-place float, "We'll Be 'Head 'Em"; our class play, "The Little Dog Laughed"; our magazine sale; and our J-Hop, "Around the World In 80 Days." Jackie Snyder was elected to the queen's court this year and Joan Mumaw was chosen to be an exchange student in Germany for the summer.

For our senior year, the greatest and most memorable of all our high-school days, Jim Pyle was elected president; Janet Hoenes, vice-president; and Tina Bynum, secretary-treasurer. Miss Merritt and Mr. Hodnett served as our class sponsors. Several honors came to our class members in 1959 and '60: Larry Fitch was elected president, and Kay Ulrich, vice-president of student council . . . Pam Aylward and Jackie Snyder were chosen by our boys to reign over homecoming . . . Jim Pyle was selected on the Twin Valley All-Conference football team . . . the girls chose Tina Bynum as D.A.R. girl . . . Sue Zinn was finalist for N.M.S.Q.T. Other events included welcoming our exchange student, Karl Wolff, from Germany; "Papa Was A Preacher," our senior play; Class Day; the senior picnic; Baccalaureate; and Graduation.

Thank you, MHS . . . all of these experiences will remain among our fondest memories.

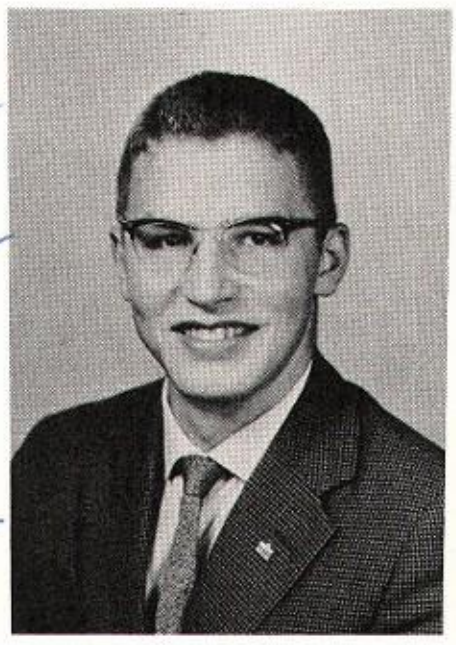
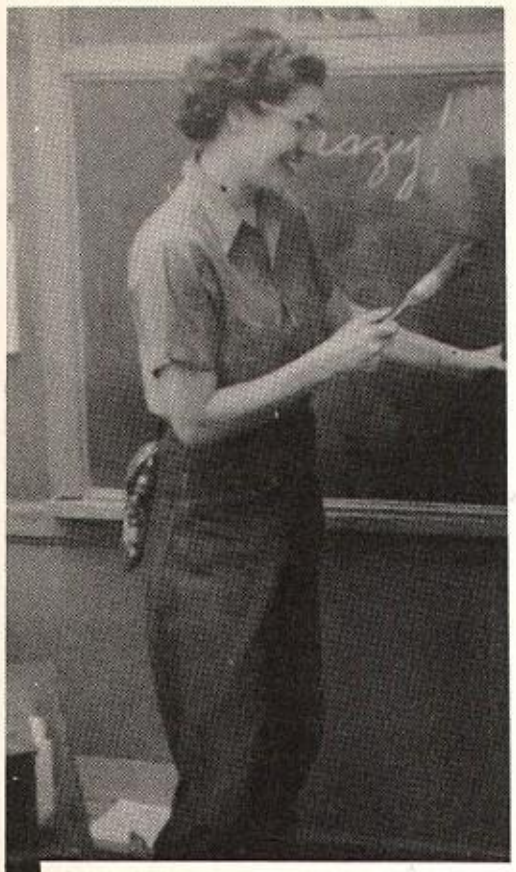
Vicki,
to a real nice girl —
I enjoyed being your neighbor for a time.
Have as much fun during your senior year as I had. Give a good senior play, and have a lot of fun in general.
Best of luck,
Karl

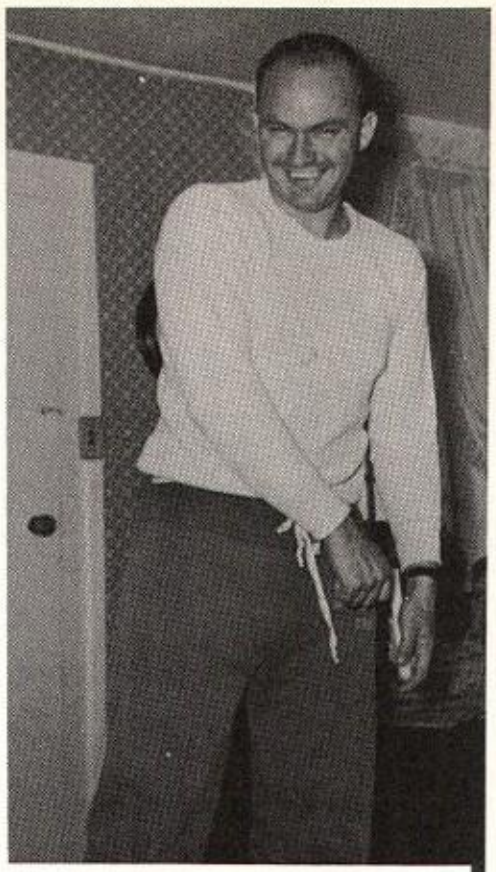


KARL D. WOLFF

Coming to us from Biedenkopf, Germany, as a Rotary-sponsored exchange student, Karl fit well into the school and the community. He played violin in the orchestra; debated on the team; served on several senior play committees; and was in the amateur show, journalism, French Club, and Science Club. Besides these many school activities, he participated in church activities, Boy Scouts, and worked at Naveo Oil Company. When Karl returns to Germany he will finish high school and then attend college. We have been glad to have you with us, Karl, and we wish you well.

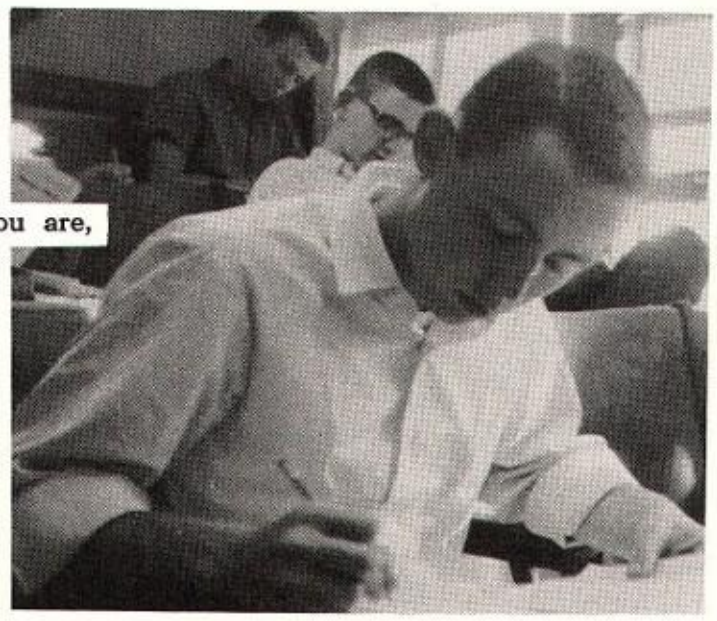
Our helpful sponsors were Miss Merritt and Mr. Hodnett.





Our sponsors did a wonderful job helping us this year, and, judging from these "candid" poses, it's beginning to show!

Joan Mumaw went to Germany as an exchange student last summer. Karl Wolff was our exchange student for the school year.



Boy, what a studious boy you are, Dan Orwig!

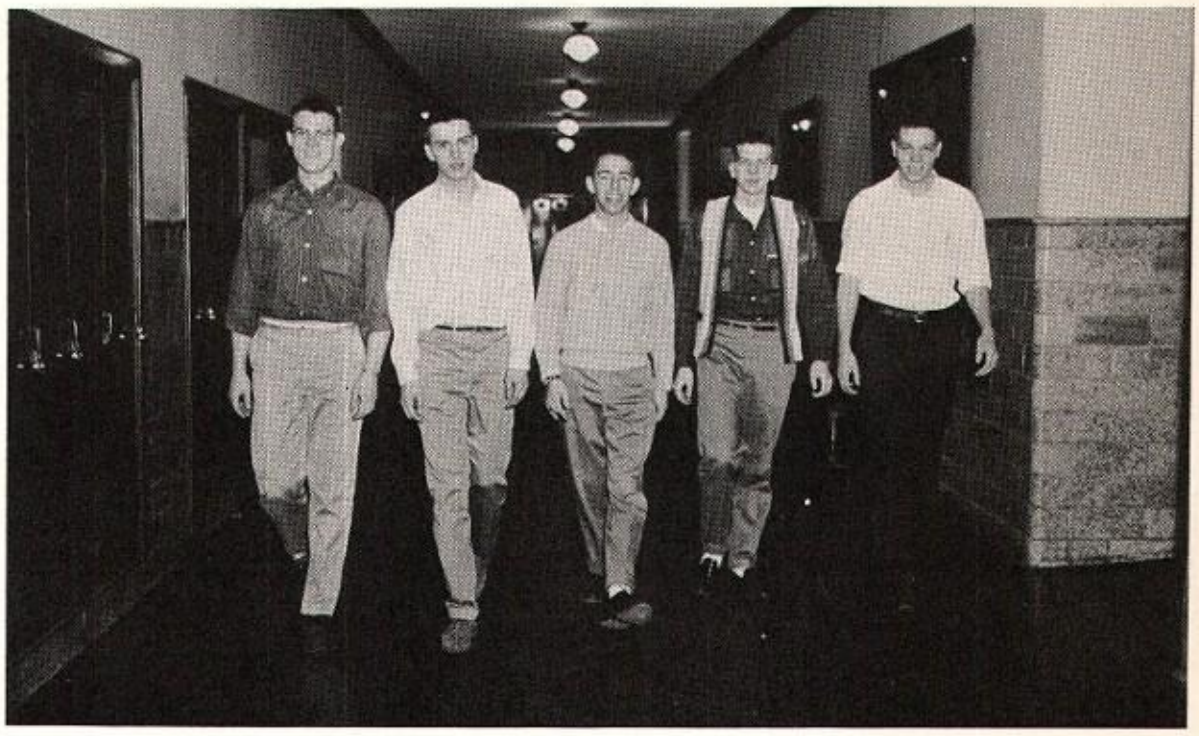
Watch out, Janet Hoenes, here comes Pam Aylward!

DAR girl for the year was Tina Bynum.

Now, Karl Wolff, do what Mrs. Murray says!

Seniors, Seniors, Seniors . . . . . .

"We went to Wolverine Girls State last summer": Vickie Donovan and Pam Aylward.



"We went to Wolverine Boys State last summer": Hank Livingston, Tom Aills, Doug Waggott, Sarge White, and Dave Beattie.

Rise, table, rise!

But, Charlene Hayes, we don't believe a word you say!

"Future Homemaker of Tomorrow" was Sonja Hollister.

In the good ol' summertime Wayne Shrontz and Doug Waggott just sit.

Sponsors for the junior class were Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald.

We're almost there! The junior class officers were Kay Flynn, vice-president; Janet Place, secretary-treasurer; and Larry Baker, president.

JUNIOR JOURNALISM

"We take over next year!" (Standing) Betty Myers, Sandy Fairbanks, Pat McKenna, Sandy McLain, Tom Wolf, Steve Chapman, Jennie Shaw, Paula Brower, Vicki Hemmingsen; (seated) Sue Weber, Marcia Lindberg, Marcia Devenney, Karen Wheeler, Fran Boyd, Beth Cook, and Sally DuBane.

Juniors Were Active in '59-60 . . . . .

VOLUNTEENS

Several of our school's Junior Red Cross Volunteens devoted much of their time helping at Oaklawn Hospital. During this past year, the two juniors above led our representatives: Sue Weber, chairman, and Pat McKenna, assistant chairman.

The winners in the Magazine Sale were: Sue Weber, first place; Shirley Gull, third; Sally DuBane, fourth; and Marcia Lindberg, second.

JUNIOR ROTARIANS

Sue Reagle won second place in the Cherry Pie Baking Contest with Sue Weber winning first place.

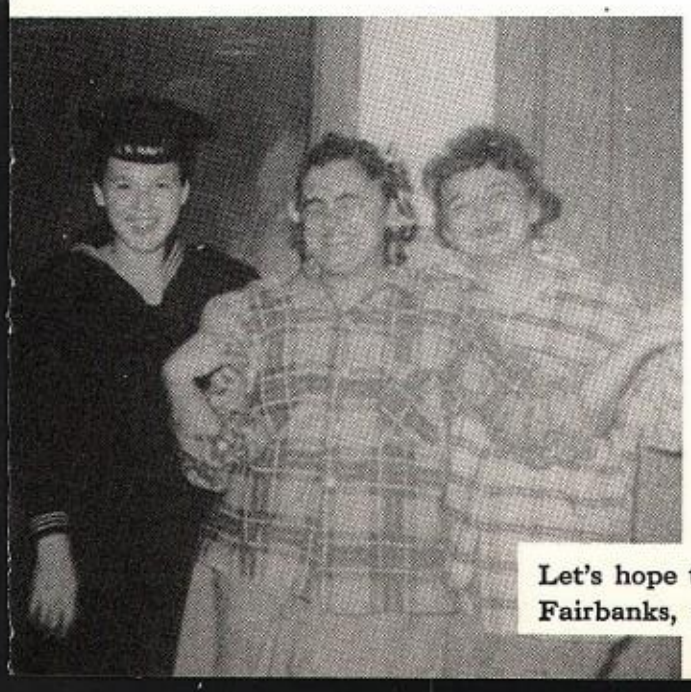
Vicki Tallenger is "MAD."

Two 'beautiful' guys: Doug Webb, the mermaid, and Jon Rivers, the skindiver.

My, what long tongues you have, Norma Duncan, Doretta Hartung, and Sue Weber!



Let's hope this was Hoedown day, Opal Watkins, Sandy Fairbanks, and Doris Hazel.

At 4:30 A.M. life gets kind of tiring at a slumber party.

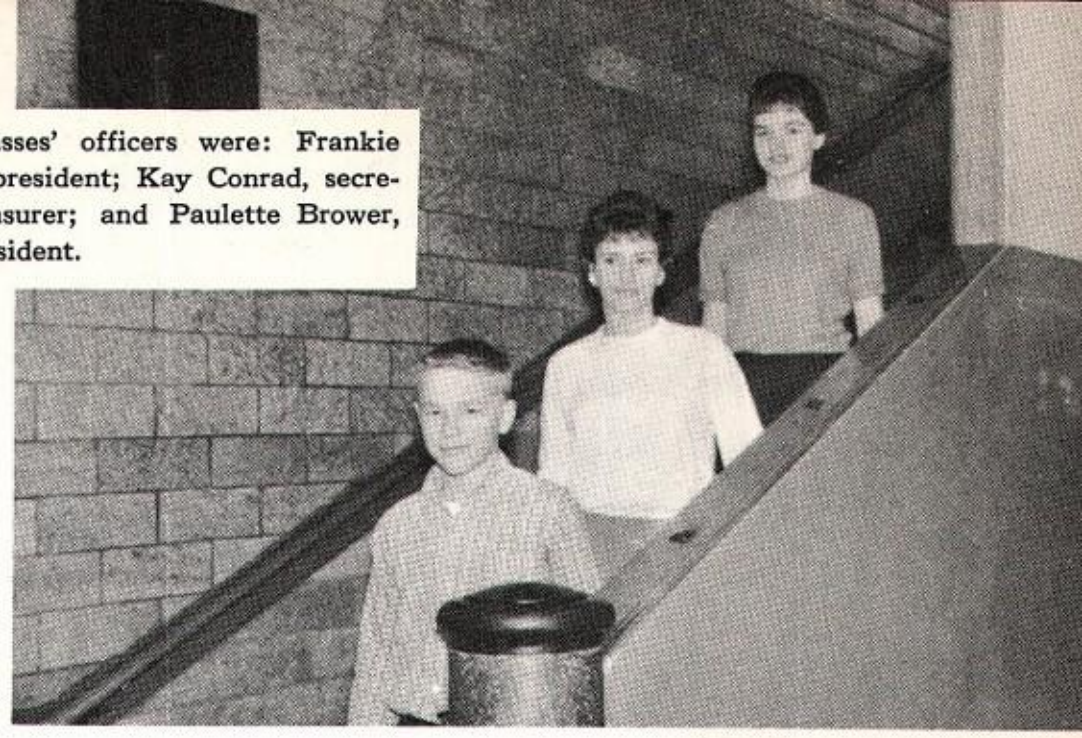
The cast members of the two plays, "She Was Only A Farmer's Daughter" and "A By-Line For St. Luke," presented their productions on December 22 under Miss Burlingame's helpful supervision.



The classes' officers were: Frankie Willis, president; Kay Conrad, secretary-treasurer; and Paulette Brower, vice-president.

Eventful Year for Junior High

These junior-high students are presenting their principal, Mr. Cooper, with a welcome-back gift. Due to a serious illness, Mr. Cooper had to leave school for a couple of months shortly after the school year began. During his absence, Mr. Fitzgerald served as junior-high principal. Mr. Cooper is back with us now and we are glad he has recovered from his illness.

Magazine Sale award winners: Marge Aalbregtse, Jim Schuler, John Hendrickson, and John Stout.

Junior-high Magazine Sale chairmen were: Frankie Willis, Kay Conrad, and Tommy Stealy.

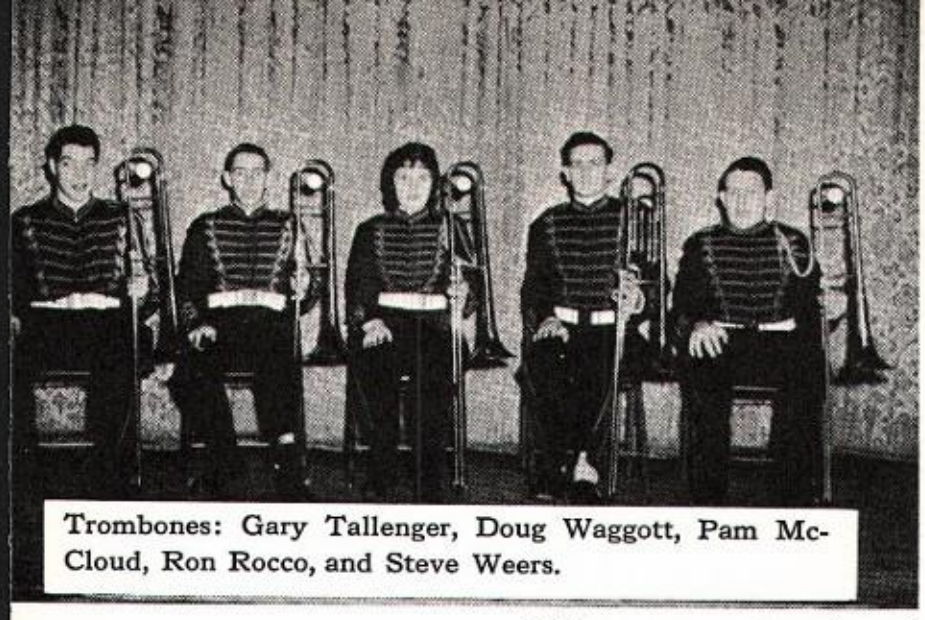
Band Had A Busy and Successful Year

Percussion: John Carroll, Mark Stuart, Jack Lawrence, Sandy Brink, Tony Javoroski, and Mr. Harris, director.

Flutes: Linda Salisbury, Ruth Ann Davis, Kathy Smyth, Gail Hice, David Smith, Diane Waggott, Mary Sue Miller, Sue Wood, and Cheri Caywood.

Alto clarinets: Shirley Laing, Sandra Huff, Marilyn Rivers; bass clarinets: Marguerite Monette and Carolyn Summey.

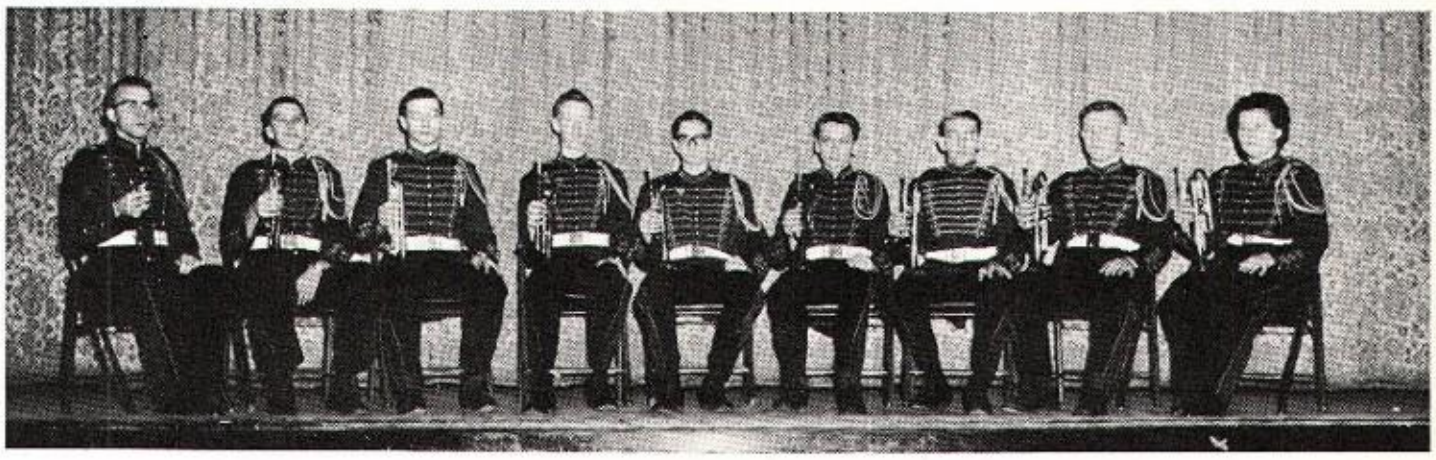
Baritones and basses: Bill Jaques, Bill Youngdahl, Pat Miller, Dave Dobbertien and Chuck Groesbeck.



Trombones: Gary Tallenger, Doug Waggott, Pam McCloud, Ron Rocco, and Steve Weers.

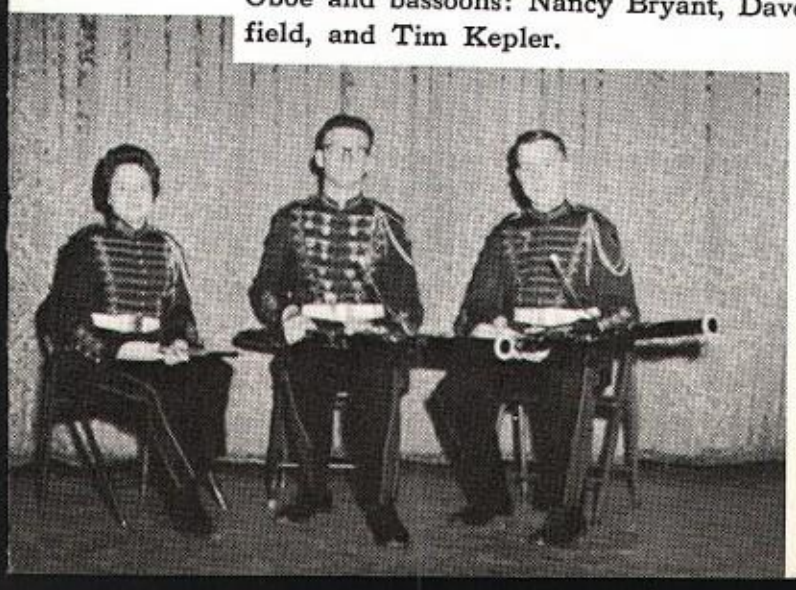
French horns: Dave Ludington, Bill Neuman, Carol Peterson, and Norma Duncan.

This year our band, under the able direction of Mr. Harris, added to many school activities. It marched for the half-time shows of the football games and participated in the two departmental concerts. The members of the band also did well in the festivals they attended, as a group and in solos and ensembles. The band members also make up the pep band and the various student dance bands.



Cornets: Carroll Smyth, Bill Thick, Jim Blanchard, Brent Belcher, Roger Clark, Jerry Brower, Allen Powers, Nelson Wood, and Linda Delaney.

Saxophones: Lloyd Doolittle, Martha Holt, Carolyn Champion, Sallie Carr, Audrey Hemmingsen, Bill Reyer, Sarah Barclay, Mark Brower, and Dave Rimmer.



Oboe and bassoons: Nancy Bryant, Dave Hatfield, and Tim Kepler.

Drum Major Jack Lawrence and Majorettes Jeanne Ann Meyer, Cheryl Ulrich, Gail Hice, Vicki Tallenger, and Gloria Niceswander.

Trombones: Ron Rocco, Pam McCloud, and Doug Waggott.

Percussion: Mark Stuart, Tony Javoroski, and John Carroll.

Orchestra Contributed Good Music To Many Occasions

Oboe, Nancy Bryant; and bassoon, David Hatfield.

Pianist Charlene Hayes and Miss Beebe, the director.

Under the able direction of Miss Beebe, our orchestra provided good music for many occasions. Besides its part in the two departmental concerts, the orchestra played at the class plays and the Honor Society assembly. The members of the orchestra also did well in the festivals they attended, as a group and in solos and ensembles. Orchestra members also provided music for other meetings and activities in the community.

Cellos: Sharon Rhoads, Sue Zinn, Amy Stuart, and Alice Rollins.

Violas: Dawn Caywood and Jackie Merritt.

First violins: Dianne Hayes, Katie Jo Kinney, Priscilla Pettigrew, Karl Wolff, and Fran Boyd. Missing was Rena Miller.

Second violins: Roberta Ludington, Ken Rhoads, Marilyn Laing, Helen O'Melay, Tara Holmes, and Nancy Vedmore.

Cornets and French horns: Carroll Smyth, Brent Belcher, Jim Blanchard, Norma Duncan, and Bill Neuman.

Flutes: Linda Salisbury, Ruth Ann Davis, Kathy Smyth, and Gail Hice.

Clarinets: Tamara Fausz, Jeanne Ann Meyer, Carol Green, and Dianne Piper.

Basses: Carolyn Drumm and Ed Salyers.

Junior High Band and Orchestra Train Good Musicians

Junior-high majorettes were: Jeannie Waggott, Pat Rowbotham, and Merrie Garnett.

Junior-high band at rehearsal under Mr. Harris' direction.

Talent Yields Successful Choir

The high-school choir, instructed by the talented Mr. Wilkinson, has presented several delightful and entertaining programs since the beginning of the 1959-60 school year. The first of these performances was enjoyed by the student body at the annual Christmas assembly. At this assembly, as well as at the annual Easter assembly, the choir sang inspirational and delightful songs fitting for the occasion. They also presented another most successful program for their annual spring concert. Another big event for the talented vocalists was the Kalamazoo Festival at which time the choir met with several other school choirs and displayed their abilities with vocal music.

"Papa Was A Preacher"

"Papa was a Preacher," by Aylene Porter, was presented on Thursday, November 19. Good acting, skillful directing, and a good set all contributed to making the Senior Play a most enjoyable performance. The six Porter kids got into more than their share of trouble, and the fact that their father was a minister made the consequences twice as bad. The prudish Miss Jonas was forever finding fault with the normal activities of the Porter children. The kids also had their love problems with Orley, Helen, and the Smith sisters. The play ended on a happy note with the whole family gathered around as Papa and Mama renewed their wedding vows. Miss Burlingame's first attempt at directing a high-school play was a success.

"Onions In The Stew"

"Onions in the Stew," by Betty MacDonald, was the juniors' choice this year. The comedy was presented Friday evening, April 1, to a fine, receptive audience.

The story revolves around the MacDonald family who decide to move to an island. Each member of the family invites a few friends to the island and everyone shows up at once, causing a hilarious uproar of the household. All is topped off by their being snowbound. The play ends with the family selling its island home and returning to the city.

This three-act comedy, directed by Miss Burlingame, was presented by a skillful cast and crew.

Assistant director Roxie Desy and stage manager Allen Powers.

Master of Ceremonies, Larry Fitch.

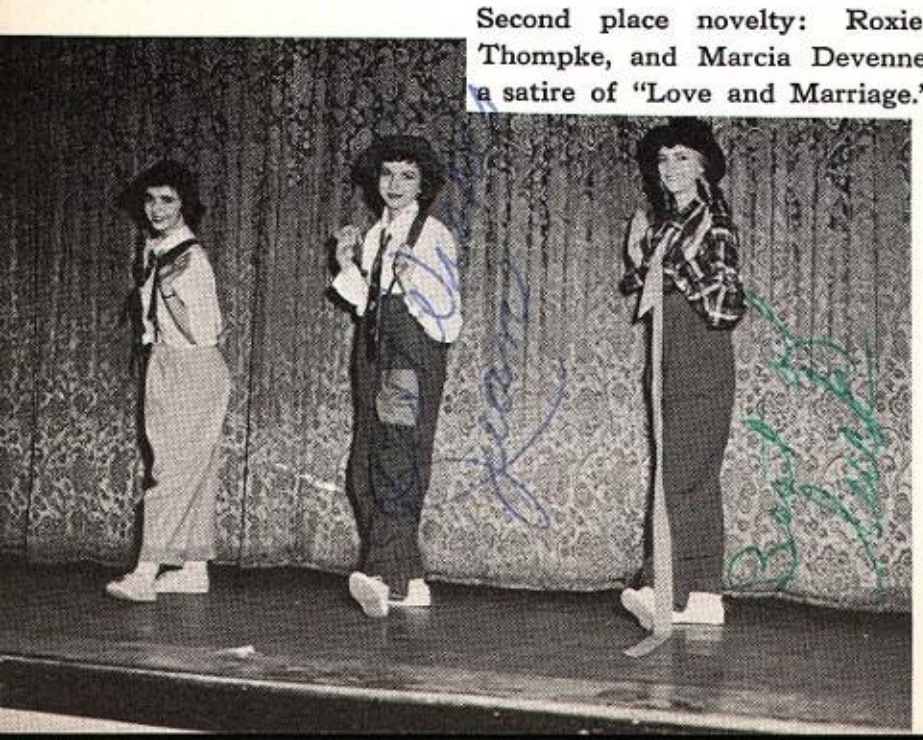
Mistress of Ceremonies, Sally DuBa

LEAP YEAR USA

Second place vocal: Pat Ingraham and Bill Neuman, singing "You're Not Sick, You're Just In Love," with accompaniment by Jackie Snyder (not shown).

"Leap Year, USA," was the theme of the Amateur Show, which was sponsored for the first time this year by the Student Council and was presented twice on February 23. The large map, with the stops of the show marked on it, made a good background for the fifteen acts in the vocal, instrumental, and novelty categories. Much of the success of the show must be credited to the members of the Student Council and their faculty advisers, Mr. Cunningham, Miss Beebe, and Miss Burlingame.

Second place novelty: Roxie Desy, Jean Thompke, and Marcia Devenney, dancing to a satire of "Love and Marriage."



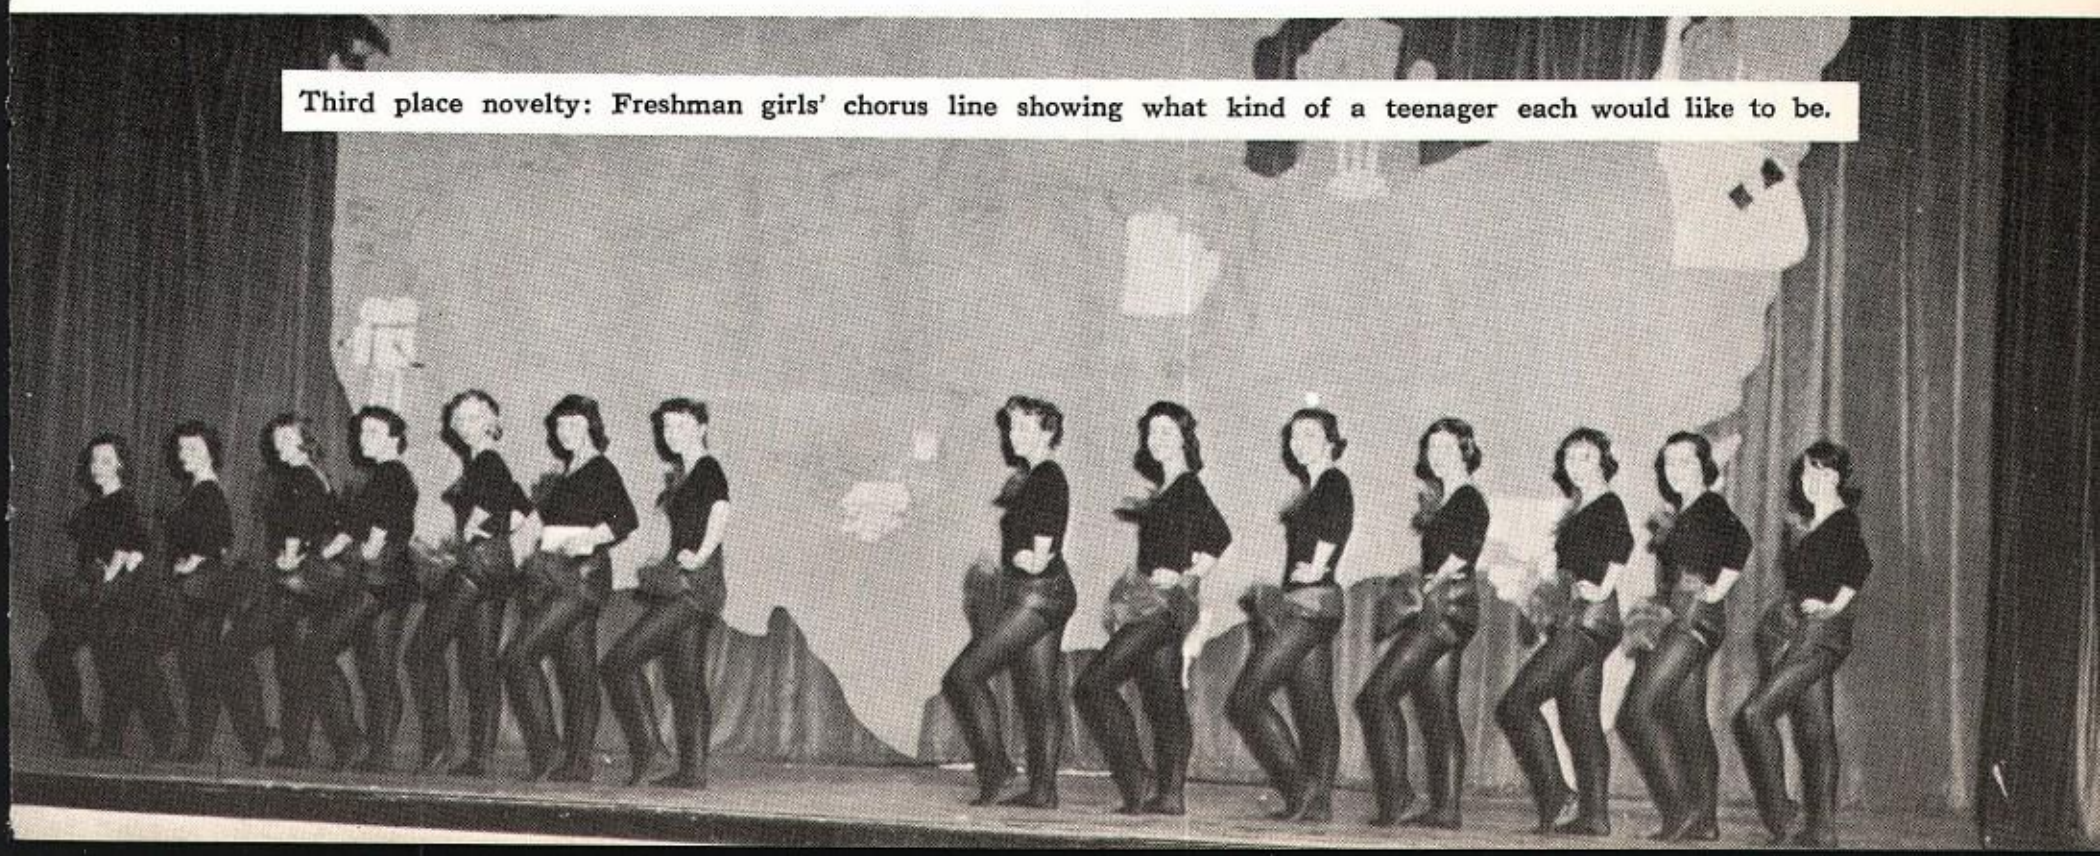
Third place vocal: Helen Lindsey, singing "Chapel In the Moonlight."

First place vocal: Penny McMahan, singing "The Man I Love," with Bill Neuman, Mark Stuart, and Jackie Snyder (not shown) accompanying.

First place instrumental: Dixieland Band with Bill Neuman, Dave Hatfield, Bill Reyer, Lloyd Doolittle, Doug Waggott, and Mark Stuart.

First place novelty: Janice Miller and Sue Weber, pantomiming "The Abominable Snowman."

Mr. Cunningham, Faculty Adviser.



Third place novelty: Freshman girls' chorus line showing what kind of a teenager each would like to be.

Won 2, Lost 7 - - - Total Gain, Experience

Our Redskins had a rough year with many injuries plaguing them throughout the season. Despite these handicaps, good sportsmanship was displayed by the boys and they must be commended even more in view of the heartbreaking evenings they had to endure. The experience gained this year by the underclassmen should prove very valuable in helping to restore the Marshall football tradition next year.

CAGERS FOOL ODDSMAKERS; TAKE CLASS 'B' DISTRICT TITLE

After turning in a rather disappointing season in Twin Valley action, with flashes of brilliance in several games, our Redskins, coached by Mr. Clark, caught fire and defeated Harper Creek and Albion to take the district title for Class 'B' schools.

The upset over Albion in the final game for the championship was a major one as Albion was favored heavily. The team combined some very fine defensive play with two or three clutch baskets in the final minutes to take the very close game by a score of 45 to 43.

The basketball coaches were: reserve coach, Mr. Sackrider; and varsity coach, Mr. Clark.

Doug Waggott (mgr.), Larry Willis, Larry Baker, Jim Pyle, Dale Willis, Russ Bates, Don Van Uum, Genar Meservey, Ed Flynn (captain), Jon Rivers, Bruce Pardoe, John Barnes, and Vince Stauffer (mgr.).

The reserves, under the direction of Coach Hodnett and his assistants, Mr. Livingston and Mr. Sackrider, posted an even record of three wins and three losses. This record was very impressive as only freshmen and sophomores were used, while many of the opposing teams were mainly composed of juniors.

Reserve Squads Displayed Great Potential

The fundamental skills acquired through game experience by this year's reserve basketball squad should prove very valuable when they reach the varsity squad. Coached by Mr. Sackrider, the boys did very well, winning five and losing ten, considering the lack of experience and the rule that juniors are not allowed to play reserve ball such as they are on many rival teams.

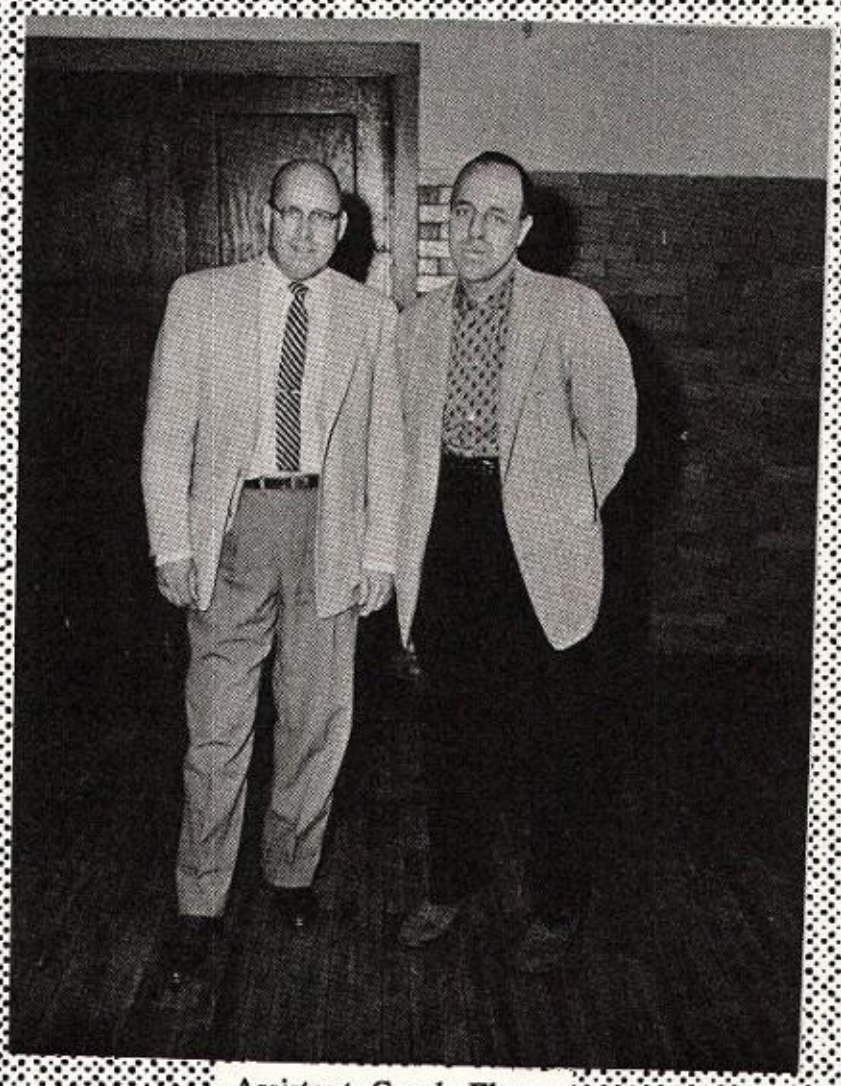
Redskin '9' Fields Veteran Team

The baseball squad, coached by Mr. Cooper, is looking forward to this year's Twin Valley competition with nine returning lettermen to form the nucleus of the team. The prospects are very bright for bettering last year's third-place finish as there are a number of promising rookies who will combine with the letter-winners to round out the squad.

Larry Baker, Larry Fitch, Ed Flynn, Dale Willis, and Dick Hill.



Assistant Coach Fleser
Head Coach Cooper

Gary Thunder, Rodney Winchell, Jon Rivers, and Russ Bates.

Trackmen Set Their Goals High

Head Coach Clark

Even though the showing in last year's Twin Valley meet was not very outstanding, the track team did well in their meets; even though some valuable members of the team were lost through graduation, a number of experienced boys are returning. These experienced track participants, along with a few new boys, should provide Coach Clark with a good season on the cinders.

Assistant Coach Mack

Netters Anticipate Good Season

The tennis squad, coached by Mr. Klein, looks forward to a successful season. With several returning lettermen and a number of newer boys to add to the squad, this could very well prove to be Marshall's best season on the tennis courts.

Linksters Drive For Fine Season

Mr. Hodnett, Marshall High's new golf coach, is looking forward to his first season with a number of experienced boys returning from last year's squad. With only one regular being lost from last year's squad through graduation, the linksters should have a very fine season.

"If you can't hear us, we'll yell a little louder!"

The cheerleaders are an energetic group of girls with a maximum of school spirit. They have the very difficult job of trying to instill school spirit into the sometimes indifferent crowd. Also, they must prepare pep assemblies for the student body before each home game.

This group of ten girls, sponsored by Mrs. Fitzgerald, is chosen by a panel of teachers and graduating cheerleaders in the spring of each year on the basis of their agility, grades, personality, school spirit, and appearance.

GAA and Varsity Club Show Student Interest in Athletics

The Girls' Athletic Association is a club provided for all girls interested in sports. The members participate in bowling leagues, dodge ball, basketball, and other sports. The girls receive a point for each game played. One must have nine points to become a member and ninety points for a letter. Under its hardworking sponsor, Mrs. Fitzgerald, the club puts on a winter formal which is a big event of the year; they also sponsor homecoming.

The GAA officers and representatives were: (back) Cheryl Lee, sophomore; Patty Zerbel, junior; Tina Bynum senior; Mrs. Fitzgerald, adviser; (seated) Sue Myers, secretary-treasurer; Kay Flynn, vice-president; and Jackie Snyder, president.

The Varsity Club is composed of boys who have earned a varsity letter in one of the major sports. They are required to live up to the five basic principles that are represented by the five points of the "M": sportsmanship, scholarship, citizenship, spirit, and attitude. The big event of the year is a trip taken by the boys and coaches financed with the money they earn by holding dances and selling trinkets. Sponsorship of the group is handled by the entire coaching staff.

This happy group included some of the Varsity Club members. President of the club was Jim Pyle; vice-president, Ed Flynn; secretary, Gary Thunder; and treasurer, Bruce Pardoe.

"Do as the Romans do," the motto of the Latin Club, is carried out during the year through various activities: each year a banquet with Roman entertainment and food is enjoyed by the toga-clad members; a newspaper with club news is published; a Roman Holiday, for which many schools in the area meet for a day of Roman festivities, is also held each year. This active group is led by the energetic Miss Shafer.

Societas Latina, Le Cercle Francais

Strengthen Classwork

A club organized just last year, Le Cercle Francais, is sponsored by Mr. Sanback. Caroling in the halls at Christmas time is one major activity of the club, and each year the members of the club have the Mardi Gras, a banquet, with fine entertainment and good food. The club publishes a newspaper for its members. A French Day is also held each year in a neighboring school where the members may meet other French students.

Ushers Add Grace To Many Occasions

The Usher Club, sponsored by Miss Merritt, is made up of girls who are chosen by the teachers on the basis of personality, appearance, reliability, and character. As it is a privilege only a few girls can enjoy, the members serve their school and community in their best manner. These girls usher for school concerts and plays, Civic Theater productions, and other civic functions. They are proud and honored to serve.

Assistant Head Usher

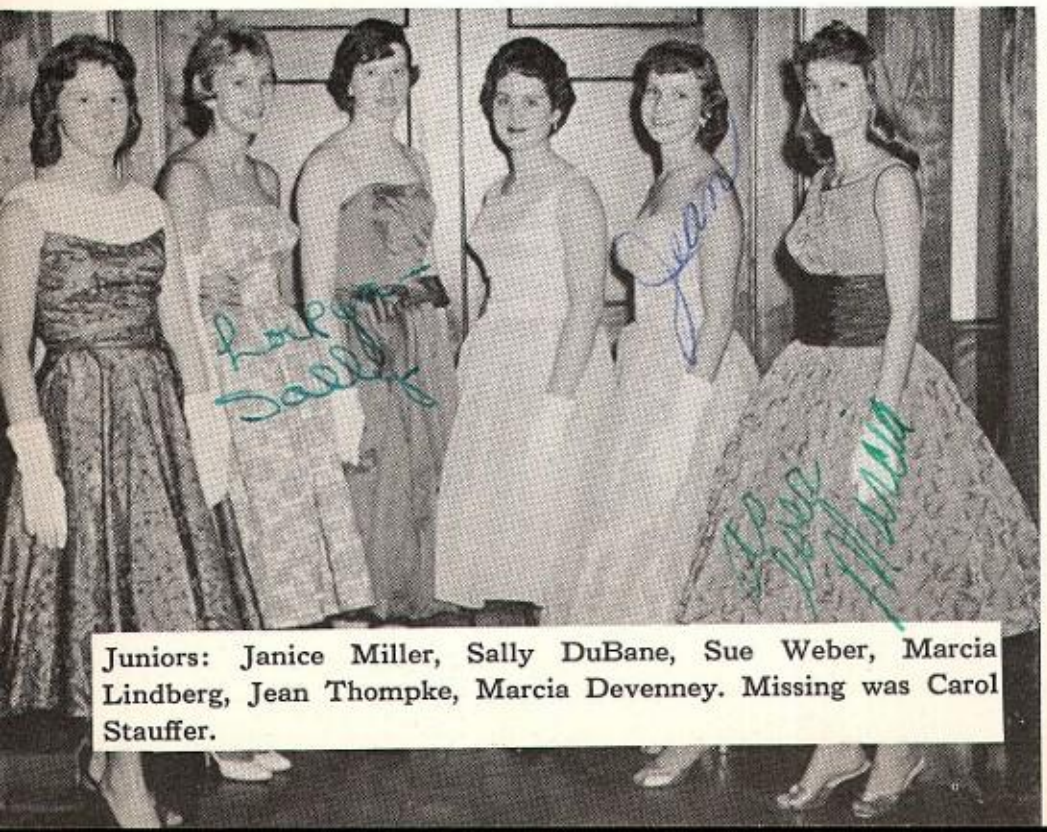
Head Usher
Anita Martens, Senior

Seniors: Joan Mumaw, Jackie Snyder, Pam Aylward, Pat Ingraham, Mary Jo Hoexter, Sue Zinn, Jeanne Ann Meyer, Charlene Hayes, Penny McMahan, Janet Hoenes, Tina Bynum.



Juniors: Janice Miller, Sally DuBane, Sue Weber, Marcia Lindberg, Jean Thompke, Marcia Devenney. Missing was Carol Stauffer.

Sophomores: Claudia Eisenhauer, Beryl Rhinehart, Margaret Currie, Sue Coakes, Martha Holt.

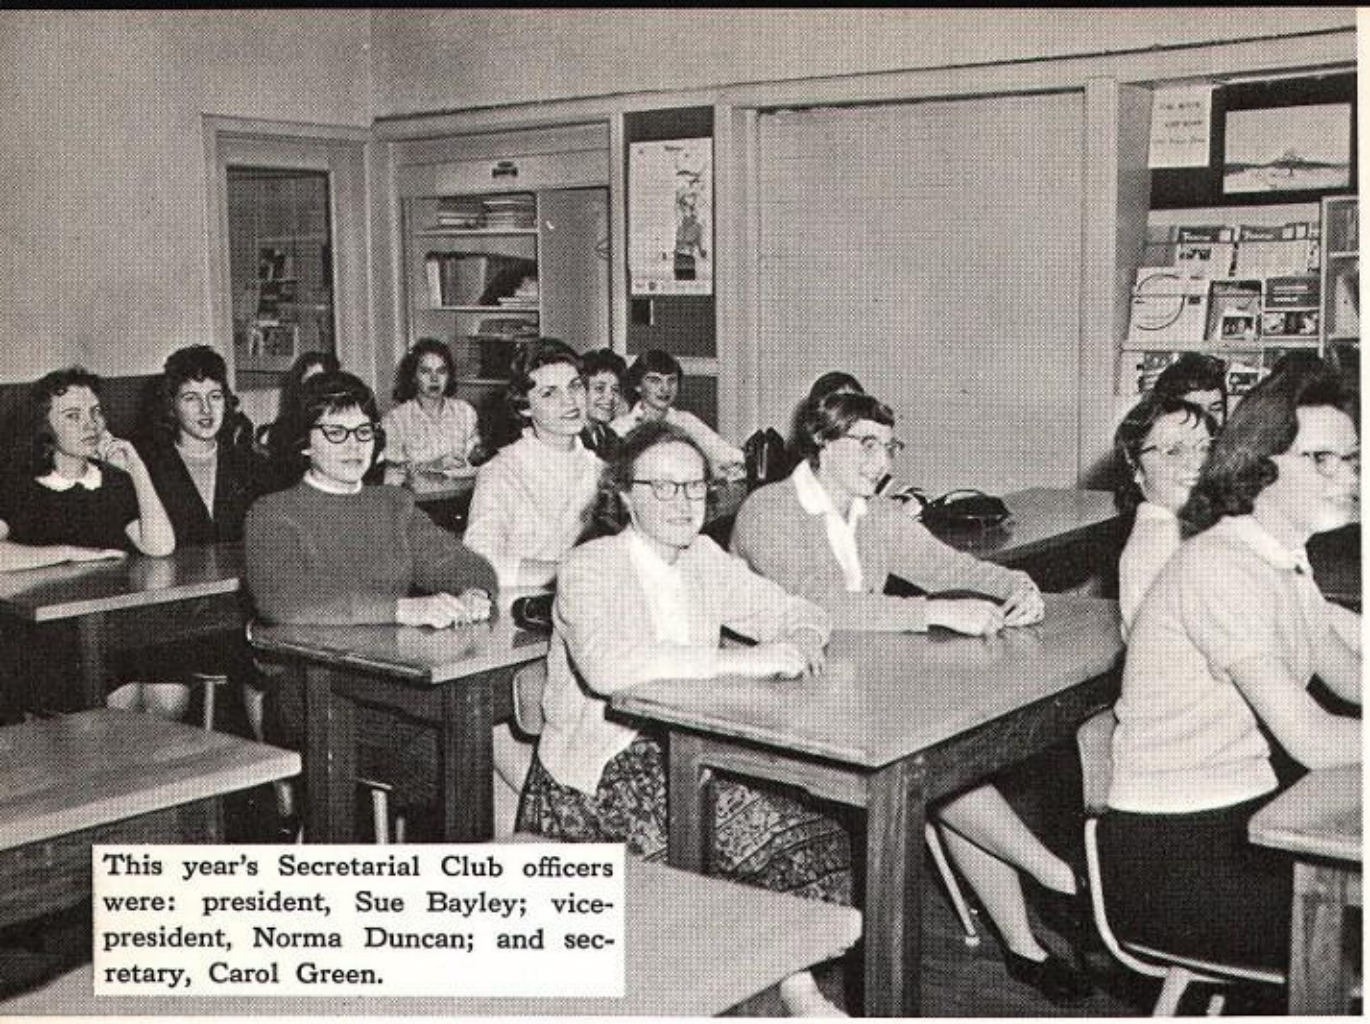
Honor Society Recognizes Scholarship, Character, Service, and Leadership

New members of the National Honor Society: (sitting) Marcia Lindberg, Patty Zerbel, Sally DuBane, Jean Thompke, Sue Weber, Janice Miller; (standing) Mark Stuart, Anita Martens, Milton Drumm, Dave Hatfield, Dick Cook, and Bill Stiner.

The two-year members of National Honor Society are: (standing) Sue Zinn, Vincent Stauffer, Tom Aills, Sarge White, Miss Merritt, adviser; (seated) Joan Mumaw, Gerry Lou Hinkley, Mary Hoexter, Jeanne Ann Meyer, Penny McMahan, and Tina Bynum.

Each year new members are introduced into the Marshall Chapter of the National Honor Society, which is sponsored by Miss Merritt. This year's ceremony was held March 16, with the Reverend Douglas G. Trout as the guest speaker.

Students are selected for the society on their excelling scholastic ability and their outstanding leadership, character, and service. The Keystone, symbolic of strength and perfection, and the Flaming Torch, symbolic of the light of knowledge, constitute the emblem of the society. At the base of this emblem are the letters "C,S,L,S" —Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service.



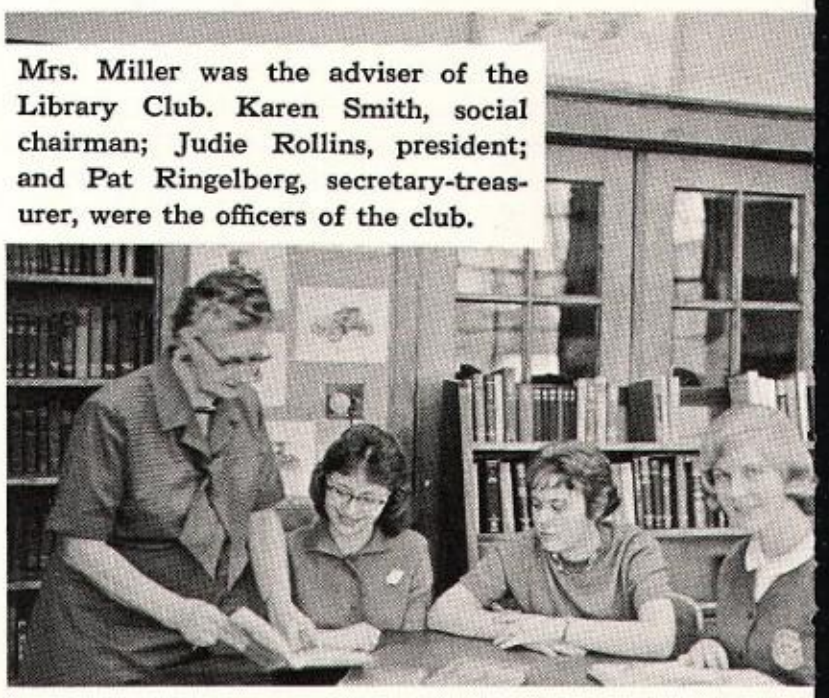
This year's Secretarial Club officers were: president, Sue Bayley; vice-president, Norma Duncan; and secretary, Carol Green.

The Secretarial Club endeavors to stimulate the interests of the members who wish to broaden their knowledge in this field. To do this, the group invites guests to give educational talks. Trips of interest are also taken to show the members what will be required of them in such a vocation. Mrs. Rhinehart is the very efficient adviser of this most educational group.

FNA, Library and Secretarial Clubs - - - Preparation for Careers

Future Nurses' Club officers were: Miss Bullock, adviser; Sharon Caywood, corresponding secretary; Mary Merkle, vice-president. Missing were Vera Tabiadon, president, and Jane Hendrickson, secretary.

The Future Nurses' Club, under the sponsorship of Miss Bullock, is an organization of girls interested in nursing, therapy, and the many other jobs in the field of medicine. The girls have guest speakers, they visit hospitals, and through the club are brought in contact with college possibilities and scholarships.



Mrs. Miller was the adviser of the Library Club. Karen Smith, social chairman; Judie Rollins, president; and Pat Ringelberg, secretary-treasurer, were the officers of the club.

The Library Club is composed of girls who take care of the library, a few every hour of the school day. Under Mrs. Miller's direction, the girls serve as librarians. The club sponsors a dance during the year.

The officers of the Bible Club were: Janice Miller, president; Sharon Burk, vice-president; and Kathy Powers, secretary-treasurer.

The only religious organization of Marshall High School is the Bible Club. The meetings of this interdenominational organization are planned by the students with the aid of their capable sponsor, Miss Wingate. Frequently, ministers from churches to which the members belong are invited to give short lectures. The regular meetings consist of Scripture reading, chorus and hymnal singing, and a period set aside for devotions. All this goes into the making of better Christian students at MHS.

Bible Club and Science Club - - -

Through Seeking, We Learn

Science Club officers were: Mr. Kelley, adviser; Tony Fedak, president; Bruce Steffey, treasurer; Milton Drumm, vice-president; and Kathy Powers, secretary.

The Science Club, under the able supervision of Mr. Kelley, has been organized to promote the interests of the student in the field of science. It also brings to his attention a few of the scientific achievements of our present day and age. In its second year of existence, the club has already carried out several experiments and projects, and has taken several field trips. One of the requirements for membership is to complete one project dealing with some phase of science.

This organization, under the capable supervision of Mr. Grossbauer and Mr. Anderson, endeavors to promote the interests of the agriculture-minded student. These students participate in many field trips and meetings to learn more about new developments which make farming practices more efficient. To become a member and receive the benefits of this organization, the student must be enrolled in vocational agriculture and be accepted by his fellow members.

FFA and FHA - - - -

Preparation for the Future

The Future Homemakers of America is a national organization of girls who have had at least one semester in home-living class. The sponsors, Miss Wingate and Mrs. Foster, assist the members in planning and holding suppers, teas, parent-daughter banquets, and project nights. The club has a creed; the colors are red and white; the flower is a red rose. The program of work is service for the school, community, state, and national levels.

FHA officers were: Kathy Flynn, reporter; Pat Ingraham, president; Mrs. Foster, adviser; Diane Smith, historian; Sue Reagle, parliamentarian; Carolyn Drumm, project chairman. Missing were Pat White, treasurer; Melinda Coats, secretary; Charlotte Greenman, merit chairman; and Miss Wingate, adviser.

Student Council Serves MHS

The Student Council represents the student body of Marshall High School in making decisions which concern the senior-high students. To make the group most efficient, several standing committees have been set up which are as follows: assembly, athletic, election, publication, school service, school union, and the student-faculty committees. This very commendable group deserves a great deal of credit in recognition of the service it renders to the students of MHS.

This year's Student Council officers were: Corlinda Avery, secretary-treasurer; Kay Ulrich, vice-president; and Larry Fitch, president. Mr. Rose served as the adviser for the group.

A New Name for the Bi-Weekly -- A Sign of Ingenuity

The members of the bi-weekly staff were busy throughout the entire year composing and publishing the school paper. At the beginning of the new year, the staff members, with the help of the student body, selected a new name for the paper. The name selected was the "Marshall Highlight." This hard-working group was under the able supervision of Mr. Riley.

Sue Greene, feature editor; Joan Mumaw, news editor; and Vincent Stauffer, sports editor.

Pam Aylward, co-exchange editor; Wanda McLain, feature writer; and Tina Bynum, co-exchange editor.

GERRY LOU HINKLEY, EDITOR

A Finished Yearbook ---- A Sign of Hard Work

The members of the Dial staff had a year of hard work "cut out" for them when they started the new school year. The various duties included such things as ad-selling, art work, photography, copywork etc. Since the students were much on their own, they developed a sense of responsibility, promptness, and cooperation, all of which were very essential for the making of the annual. Problems which confronted the group were taken to the capable adviser, Mr. Riley.

Kay Ulrich, art editor, and Dan Orwig, business manager.

Milton Drumm, copy editor; Jerry Venn, sports writer; and Mary Hoexter, feature writer.

There were two sections of English classes this year, the regular classes and the advanced classes. The advanced classes were held for grades ten, eleven, and twelve, in addition to the regular English classes. Both classes covered the same basic material; however, the advanced classes moved faster so they could cover additional material.

Debate - - - A Sign of Good Reasoning

Being on the debate squad offers a student a rare chance to learn to think clearly and express himself. This year the team debated in two leagues, the Twin Valley League and the State League. The topic was: "Resolved: that the Federal government should substantially increase its regulation of labor unions." Mr. Gray was the coach for this year.

A Sign of Building for the Future

This department offers vocational courses for those students interested in shop, drawing, or farming. Many students who so desire are able to put their knowledge to actual use without further education upon graduation. Other students take these courses as a background for vocational professions which they wish to pursue in higher educational institutions.

Learning to appreciate books, music, and art is indeed a sign of culture: in art one learns to express himself in pictures; learning to appreciate fine music is rewarding; the library is of service to people seeking culture.

Our Town . . .

As high-school students and members of the community, we benefit from the many services of the businessmen of Marshall. This picture of the fountain, which shows only a part of our beautiful Christmas decorations which received state-wide recognition, is a symbol of the many things these individuals do for the community. Aside from these services, they do much for the school, such as giving support to the bond issue of 1959, the school athletic program, the "Highlight," and this yearbook. This support is shown in the following pages, and for this, Marshall, we thank you.
